it's kinda STRANGE thankyou Jessica really I'm unsure what possessed me/them and as I begin analyze and understand the effect of the people I'm surrounded by, sleep deprivation is definately #1, but the guards and this 'game' they enjoy playing. I don't think it was really left up to me, as I pray the answers come and this is none of what 'I' 'Spencer' desire. to father sky & Mother Earth my prayers immediately answered and I just wish/work for/remember the strength I have w/ myself to escape my/their mental 'traps'. ofcourse it is not easy - but I see myself as valiant and courageous to not give in to the fear perpetuated by these 'officers'. Except for a short time when I'm
in the hear

North deer bones
